Scheduling Athletic/Events Center

The Associate Dean of Athletics & Physical Education shall schedule all athletic, physical education, & recreational programming needs of the college. The summer and fall semester schedule will be completed by approximately April 1. The spring and winter intersession semester schedule will be completed by approximately November 1.

All college community (on campus) requests should be initiated with either Gary Parker (gparker@mvcc.edu or X5572) or Kelly McNamara (kmcnamara@mvcc.edu or X5572); Technical Assistants in the Athletic & Physical Education Department. Requests may not be made more than three months in advance. Exceptions may be made by the Associate Dean.

All community (off campus) requests should be made through the Office of Events. Requests may not be made more than three months in advance. Exceptions may be made by the Events Administrator.

Outside group usage should be encouraged to schedule activities from April through October. November through March will be heavily used for college programming.

The Athletic/Events Center should never be open for use without professional supervision from Athletic/Physical Education Department. Facility will be closed any time the college is closed; including the traditional "ajar" period.
