NCLEX–RN licensure pass rates

2008 - 71.4%

2007 - 76.3%

2006 - 84.6%

2005 - 87.8%

2004 - 76.6%

2003 - 84.2%

(These percentages are based on first attempts.)

Health Information Technology licensure pass rates

2007 - 33% (3 sat for exam, 1 passed, 2 failed)

2006 – 100% (3 sat for the exam, 3 passed)

2005 – 100% (1 sat for the exam, 1 passed)

2004 - 50% (2 sat for the exam, 1 passed, 1 failed)

2003 - 33% pass rate (3 sat for the exam 1 passed, 2 failed)

2002 - No students took the exam

Respiratory Care licensure pass rates

Students must take 3 national exams to become registered respiratory therapists (RRTs). They take the first Certified Respiratory Therapist (CRT) exam so they can work and then an additional two exams (written and clinical simulations RRT exams) to become Registered Respiratory Therapists.

June 2008 Graduates (10)

CRT exam: 100% have passed (10) RRT exam: 50% have passed (5)

June 2007 Graduates (18)

CRT exam: 94% have passed (17) RRT exam: 78% have passed (14)

June 2006 Graduates (10)

CRT exam: 100% have passed (10) RRT exam: 70% have passed (7)

June 2005 Graduates (16)

CRT exam: 100% have passed (16) RRT exam: 81% have passed (13)

June 2004 Graduates (9)

CRT exam: 100% have passed (9) RRT exam: 88% have passed (7)