DGV Dinners

- Dinners going very well and seems to have increased DGV Committee awareness among faculty and staff. Next dinner to be October 18th with Cambodian food
- Discussed organizing a DGV luncheon at a campus Institute where campus members share their cuisine
- Discussed how or if to expand DGV Dinners to students

Maya Angelou

-Discussion continued on granting DGV credit to attendees. Serious concerns about how attendance to the event will be captured. Students who have obtained tickets are identified but that does not indicate attendance. If students are to turn in their tickets with their M numbers, that information would need to be logged in

- Kyle Lince, Maimun Khan, Latoya Richardson, Rosemary Spetka

- Explore options of making Tutorial 1 a part of Orientation
- Offer Tutorial 1 as part of DGV Day

DGV Day or Week

- For this semester, hold a DGV Day on November 2, 2011, the day after Pre-reg starts
- “This is DGV” tags to identify DGV on campus to be distributed to all committee members so they can spread them during the day
- request Sodexo to incorporate DGV into their menu for that day
- make Tutorial 1 available in computer labs and laptops at certain times
- hold a DGV scavenger hunt (with prizes, if possible)
- run a video in the Commons (recommended no sound one)
- create a photo display of “This is DGV” perhaps with the help of the photo club

DGV designation

- Sandy Engel to speak with Cultural Series Committee regarding DGV designation to be housed in the DGV Committee.
