I must admit that I personally measure success in terms of the contributions an individual makes to her or his fellow human beings.”

Margaret Mead

Margaret Mead's quote introduces the groundwork of this session. Leaders are diverse in every manner and imbedded throughout our organizations/community. This interactive learning session will explore an understanding of self and the relationship to ethics, leadership philosophies, and styles through the lens of Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society's Leadership Development Program and The International Public Safety Leadership and Ethics Institute.
